

/conference_program/macit-conference/wired-and-wireless-security-radius-servers-understanding-and-uti

IT813: Wired and Wireless Security with RADIUS Servers

Conference: MacIT® Conference

Track: Mac OS X Security

Session Code: IT813

Speaker:

Dr. Bill Wiecking – Hawaii Preparatory Academy

January 16, 2008

4:15pm - 5:45pm

Session Description:

Download this session to iCal

Wired and Wireless Security with RADIUS Servers - Understanding and Utilizing Various RADIUS Servers with Mac OS X and Mac OS X Server

If you support a few or a few hundred wireless clients, you need to know about Mac OSX server and Elektron server. Both offer a one-stop solution for maintaining security and accounts for both wired and wireless clients. Imagine a solution that makes it impossible for a stranger to bring in a machine and plug into your network, either wired or wireless. Entry skills include a basic understanding of networks, and some familiarity with wireless networks. You will learn how to setup and maintain a reliable, safe wireless network, and to setup accounting security for your wired network, with these two solutions compared for ease of use, cost, and overall time spent on a reliable solution.

< BACK